

LextEdit is full of useful short cut keys to increase user productivity

LextEdit Short Cuts

Control + "O" to Open a file

Control + "S" to Save a file

"F8" to open the Connection Information Window

Control + Enter to execute the current context of the command window if connected to a system

"F6" to quickly save the results of the grid to a LextEdit Based File

"F5" to export the results of the grid to a Microsoft Excel Spreadsheet

Alt + "F4" to exit the application

Control + Shift + "U" to upper case the selected text, but not to upper case inside any defined strings

Defined Short Cuts

Tuesday, 24 March 2009 16:35 - Last Updated Wednesday, 12 January 2011 16:17

Control + "U" to lower case the selected text, but not to lower case inside any defined strings

Control + Alt + "F" format the current text in the editor window

Control + "H" to open a History Navigation Window

Control + "L" to open a Component Lookup Window

Control + "E" will open a explain plan on selected text from the editor window

Control + "T" will open a TraceProfiler

"F9" will automatically start a Moca server trace defaulted to the login name of that connection

Control + "F9" will start a Moca server trace, but prompt the user to input a trace profile name to create it as

Control + "P" will open the LextEdit Application Preferences window

Control + Alt + "Up"/"Down" Arrow will scroll through the active history items without having to open the history window

Component Lookup Short Cuts

Control + "D" will lookup the selected text as a command name

Control + Alt + "F" format the current text in the Component Lookup Window

Control + "F" will open the Find and Replace Window

Trace Profiler Short Cuts

"F5" will reopen the current trace file name, if the file has already been opened

Control + "O" open a remote trace file from a Moca connection

Control + "L" open a locally saved trace file

"F8" to open the Connection Information Window to change the connected system

Control + "S" Save the currently loaded trace file as a local file

"F10" open a LextEdit Window

Defined Short Cuts

Tuesday, 24 March 2009 16:35 - Last Updated Wednesday, 12 January 2011 16:17

Control + "E" will open a blank Explain Plan window