

LexEdit is short of Language Extendable Editor. LextEdit is a powerful editing tool for files and provides a unique communication to database and logistics systems.

Features:

- You can directly access the TraceProfiler by selecting the icon from the toolbar

- Grammatical and Semantic Parsing / Colorization for over 20 included language
- Drag and drop to open files
- Edit and save files to a local system
- Connect to Moca or SQL systems to execute commands displaying results in a usable grid
- Export the grid results to a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet or to a Comma delimited file (CSV)
- Built in Explain Plan
- Complete historical capture of commands executed displayed in a Command History Window
- On the fly code formatting and colorization
- Inteligpromp for Moca and SQL based connections of functions, commands, indexes, tables and comlumns.
- Export and import of password protected connection information to limit and control access to systems
- Import editor data in to the grid to quickly populate the grid
- Powerful and flexible copying options from the grid

- Auto Execution of commands can be setup
- Easily look up and browse Moca Commands with the Component Lookup Window
- Create your own set of custom commands to be ran
- Flexible find and replace that allows the use of regular expressions
- Set command line preferences to start a connection, window size and position
- Import / Execute server command using local file with "Execute with Local File..." .